

Legends of Charlestown

October 20-22, 2006 at Charlestown State Park

Schedule is subject to change without notice.

Legends of Charlestown is the park's first ever timeline event. In celebration of the local history, especially in connection with the Ohio River, a historic encampment and activities will be here all weekend. Camps could include Native American, 1770's frontier, 1812 settlement, river pirates, Civil War, Victorian, etc. so come and have an enjoyable time while learning about our past!

Friday, October 20

Reenactor setup all day

6:30pm Night Hike – Meet at Trail 1 to learn river pirate lore especially for the Ohio River. Who knows? We may even meet a pirate and his vessel! Bring a flashlight and expect to hike at least an hour.

Saturday, October 21

10:00am Enjoy Native American

Activities, learn how to throw an atlatl, play double ball, make your own finger weaving, and more! Meet at the Oak Shelter.

4:00pm Pony rides, Ferris wheel, grand hotel, boating, where can you find all this in the park? Rose Island Amusement Park! The park no longer exists but meet at trail 3 to hear first hand what it was like in the 1920's and see some original photographs.

6:30pm Ghost Walk – Meet at trail 3 and hike back to an old foundation that may have been the site of a historic murder, but be careful who knows what may be there!

8:00pm Rose Island video documentary showing. Created by a Charlestown local, the video documents interviews of individuals who actually have been to Rose Island in the 1920's! The showing will be in the campground on the benches by site 54.

Sunday, October 22

1:00pm Old time crafts and games make homemade ice cream, run in a three-legged race, walk on stilts, and more! Meet at the Oak Shelter.

3:00pm Listen to the Legend of the Welsh prince Madoc and the white Indians. Legend has it Madoc was in America around 1170, way before Columbus! You decide for your self. Meet at the head of Trail 2 by Oak Shelter.

Fees are $5 per car for Indiana Residents, $7 per car for out-of-state residents, or free for entrance permit holders. For more information call the park office at 812-256-5600.
